YLSD Budget Over $3.3 Million

A budget which was termed by Deputy Superintendent J. Elton Patridge as "basically this year's program" was presented to the Board of Trustees of the Yorba Linda School District at last week's meeting. The bottom line figure of the study budget is $3,366,417.

The budget, "guesstimated", according to Patridge, is a combination of recommended guidelines by the board and the administration.

The board suggested 63% be allocated for certificated salaries and administration lowered this to 60%. However, salaries are a somewhat vague area this year as the district has to contend with the teacher's newly acquired collective bargaining rights. The same applies to classified salarjes which the board pegged at 15.45% and administration at 16.38%.

Fringe benefits would add 9.80% at the board's suggestion and 12.19% according to administration. Both groups were agreed that these benefits should no longer be regarded as "fringe" but rather as "non-salaried" benefits.

The board listed 5.00% and administration 4.64% for books, supplies and equipment replacement. Contracted services would be 6.75% for the board and 6.79% for administration.

Another portion of the budget contains funds for community service, capital outlay, transfers and reserves. This amounts to $511,840.

Income would be realized from federal, state, county, and local sources. The bulk would be from local and state sources. The district is estimating an ADA of 2,455 for regular school and 80 ADA for summer school. An increase of 7% in the district's assessed valuation is estimated.

Candidates Warned on Pole Signs

Southern California Edison Company reminded candidates for political office of state laws prohibiting the placement of posters or signs on electric utility poles.

K. H. Witt, Edison area manager, said the laws serve to protect the health and safety of utility linemen working on poles as well as the rights of private property owners.

"The placement of posters on utility poles can create a safety hazard which could result in serious injury to a lineman on a utility pole," said Witt.

He explained that the California Penal Code makes it a misdemeanor for any person to place an advertisement sign on private property without the consent of the owner.

Southern California Edison does not allow signs of any type on its utility poles because of the potential safety hazard, the Edison manager added.

Witt suggested that people campaigning for elective office and organizations sponsoring events place signs in the homes of their supporters.

YMCA Honors Local Folks

At the Annual North Orange County YMCA Awards Banquet on May 23rd, three Yorba Lindan's received awards. Dick Kust accepted the Irving Chapman Outstanding Service Award for his late wife Lucia who passed away earlier this year.

The award noted Lucia's many years of service to the youth of Yorba Linda in the YMCA as well as various other youth programs.

Todd Murphy, a teacher at Fairmont School, was the receipient of an Outstanding Service Award in the area of program. Special note was given to his leadership in developing the Fairmont Outdoor Education Camp, the Camp Counselors Training program for high schoolers and the Yorba Linda YMCA Youth Basketball Association.

Nancy Waldrop was given a special award by the Yorba Linda YMCA Director, Gary Huff, for her outstanding work as a High School Club member.

Nancy, a student at Esperanza High School and league champion in the one mile run, helped organize the Yorba Linda Backpack Club and raised close to $100 for the World Service by running 11 miles and walking nine miles for the Mankind Walkathon.

Truck Routes Recommended

Further steps were taken by the Traffic Commission last week in recommending a Through Street System for the city. They entailed designating truck routes and establishing stop signs.

Several of the streets previously approved as through streets were set aside for truck routes. They included Yorba Linda Blvd., Bastanchury, Richfield, Lakeview, Imperial and Rose Drive.

Trucks will be required to use these streets and can not use other streets except when making pickups and deliveries. Trucks using other streets can be cited for being off the route and will not be permitted to park overnight.

The committee recommended stop signs on streets leading on to the through street system, four way stop signs at Palm Drive and Avocado where they intersect with Oriente.

Continuing with the Prospect Avenue study the committee voted not to change the 40 mile per hour speed limit after a radar study indicated 85% of the traffic in both directions travel at that speed.

There was some disagreement among committee members who said that the speeding on the street is done at hours other than when the radar study was made.

It was recommended that the north end of the El Cajon riding and bike trail exiting onto Prospect be afforded better sight distance by cutting back shrubbery and trees.

Also approved was the closing of a nearby private trail due to lack of a safe approach to Prospect. Police are also to enforce no parking restrictions on the street.

The location of a driveway exiting from a proposed church at Buena Vista and Ohio onto Buena Vista was moved nearer the east boundary of the property on Buena Vista with trees to be removed to improve sight distance.

Paul Harris Fellowship for Kurisu

The most coveted award in the ranks of Rotary International is the Paul Harris Fellowship. Few Rotarians receive this prestigious honor.

It was given to Dave Kurisu, president of the Yorba Linda Rotary Club last week on the occasion of his 70th birthday.

Bestowing the honor on Kurisu was former District Governor Rodney (Bud) Coulson to the cheers and congratulatins of club members and many of their wives.

Among the wives was Rosie Kurisu, wife of the honoree, who kept the entire affair a deep secret from her husband until the last moment.

Dave is a retired agent for a dry cleaning service. His business was located on Main Street in the building now serving as City Hall.

Kurisu joins Hurless Barton and Ralph McGuire, both former Rotary presidents (McGuire being the first), as recipients of the Fellowship.

Rogers Morton at Rotary On Friday

The scheduled appearance of Secretary of the Treasury William Simon at the Friday luncheon meeting of the Yorba Linda Rotary Club has been cancelled. Simon was unable to arrange his schedule to make the local visit.

Roy Knauft, administrative assistant to Congressman Charles Wiggins, revealed that instead of Simon, Rogers Morton, President Ford's campaign manager, will be the speaker at Rotary.

The meeting begins at 12:15 at the Yorba Linda Country Club. Morton will speak for 30 minutes and then hold a 10 minute question and answer period.

Morton is a former Secretary of State and was also Secretary of Commerce in 1975. He was a Congressman from Kentucky for 10 years beginning in 1962. He was educated at Yale University.

For reservations to attend this special Rotary meeting contact Program Chairman Don Sisson at 993-4222 or Knauft at 870-7266.

ORPHANS—Robin McCullough, a construction worker, found these abandoned baby birds so he brought them home. Wife Shari assumed the role of foster mother. She fed the birds honey and water for two days then hard boiled egg yolk mixed with wheat germ. They are growing fast and Shari worles about the day they'll start flying around the house. She has consulted vets about feeding and caring and plans to release the birds when they are old enough to be on their own.

Letters To The Editor

Ticket for Trash

Dear Placentia Courier Editor;

My husband and I moved to Yorba Linda three weeks ago after buying a house in a very run down condition. Having a great deal of garbage and not wanting to litter the neighborhood even more than already had been done, my husband borrowed a truck and we loaded it as carefully as possible, making sure that the heavier boxes were on top.

We have lived in Southern California for three years but we have never been to the dump. Having seen the sign pointing in the direction of the dump, we vaguely knew the way. We no sooner had turned onto Valencia Blvd. when we were stopped by Officer Partridge of the Brea Police Force.

He immediately informed us that we were in violation of the law for not covering our load. We explained that we both were totally unaware of the law but that we would be happy to immediately return home and comply with the law. (The time at this point was about 1:30 p.m.) He explained that his job was to enforce the law and enforcement means a ticket!

Both my husband and I were totally stunned and as we were being issued the ticket 15 UNCOVERED non-commercial vehicles passed by, none of which were stopped. He explained that this is his idea of solving the problem. (the writer alleges)

In addition, Officer Partridge was not even aware of the speed limit on Valencia Blvd. as he wrote down that the speed limit is 35 when in fact it is 45! (the letter alleges)

We asked about a possible sign to inform motorists and he explained that he had nothing to do with that. "Actually, I'd rather be home on a Saturday relaxing," he boasted. When asked how he could live with himself by ripping off the public, the honest law-abiding citizen, he replied that that was not a problem. (the writer alleges)

When my husband and I returned home we immediately complied with the law. When my husband returned at 2:20 p.m. Officer Partridge was no where to be seen. Proceeding on to the dump my husband witnessed that over half of the non-commercial vehicles were uncovered. At the dump and on the way to the dump there are signs explaining dump rules. NOT A SINGLE SIGN MENTIONS ANYTHING ABOUT COVERED LOADS!!!

Needless to say, I am frustrated, angry and downright disgusted with the whole ridiculous mess. It's no wonder that people have so little respect for the police and that our youth have lost confidence in them. I was relieved that our 5 year old son was not there to witness the episode.

Yes, we did break the law and yes, we may have to pay the fine but it will not end at that. This letter is being sent to the Police Dept., the Mayor, the City Council Members, the Planning Commission and all of the local newspapers.

I'm sure that there are other honest people who are also outraged at this type of treatment and it's time that someone did something.

I would be happy to personally come in and speak with you about this problem.

Sincerely,
Ms. Nancy J. Rikel,
Yorba Linda

Flag Thieves

Dear Editor:

It seems to be the fashion among some to steal American flags and do (Lord knows what) with them after they are in the thieves' hands. Mission Viejo seems to join Yorba Linda and other nice cities in the new past-time. Sick people are growing in numbers.

During the past year, three American flags were stolen from our Nixon Park. Three were taken from the flagpole also in front of a restaurant at Puerta Real in Misson Viejo.

At the latter spot, the first flag stolen was a 48-star World War II bunting given the owner by her mother upon the burial of her brother who was killed in Okinawa. The other two, she had purchased at $76 each. At Nixon Park, the three Y.L. Chamber of Commerce flags were pulled from their poletops at night, as would be fitting the dark action.

Some "explanatory notes" left behind contained language that is not fitting for civilized publication. The appalling aspect is that these flags are probably decorating the inside of someone's van or pick-up truck, or could be used as a bedspread or wall decoration. Others have, according to notes left behind, been burned or even worse.

History leaves to us many great comments, but no greater is the admonition of Jesus Christ when He said, "Forgive them, for they know not what they do."

But it seems so strange to us that so few can affect the lives and the loves of so many. The "silent majority" has indeed become an action minority as the seeds of unrest and fear creep on and on.

Election. . .

on the Democratic ballot for Superior Court judge as are all the candidates for the three Municipal Court judgeships which are non-partisan offices.

The same applies to Pat Arnold for the County Board of Education, Trustee Area 3.

Fifteen measures have been submitted to voters with Number 15 generating the most controversy. That one deals with nuclear power plants.

The measure seeks to prohibit the operation and construction of nuclear power plants at capacity unless the Legislature makes designated findings.

A "YES" vote would support the measure and a "NO" vote would oppose any prohibition of operation and construction.

Other measures of interest, most of them having a financial impact include Proposition 1: provides two hundred million dollar bond issue for construction or improvement of public schools; Proposition 2: provides five hundred million dollar bond issue for farm and home aid for California veterans;

Proposition 3: provides $175,000,000 for improvement systems to meet minimum water standards; Proposition 4: provides $150 million bond issue for public community college facilities; Proposition 9: Legislature may permit cities and counties to provide for bingo games for charitable purposes; Proposition 13: authorizes Legislature to provide manner in which low or moderate income persons over 62 may postpone property taxes on residence.

There is one county proposition labeled "B" which provides for the rearrangement of trustee areas in the North Orange County Community College District.

Animal Task Force

The Yorba Linda City Council has established an Animal Control Services Task Force. The five member Task Force will examine alternate methods for providing control, shelter, and licensing of all animals in the city, with emphasis on the feasibility of the city providing these services or continuing to contract with the County of Orange.

Any person interested in serving on this Task Force may obtain an application from City Hall. Applications will be accepted until June 18, 1976.

Water Board Anti-Prop. 15

Passage of Prop. 15, the so-called "nuclear initiative," will sharply increase water costs for the district's water users, the Yorba Linda County Water District board of directors warned this week.

In a unanimously passed resolution, the board said new nuclear power generating plants are needed within the next decade to provide the electrical energy needed to pump water into the district from the state's huge water system.

Prop. 15, if approved by the state's voters next June 8, would ban all new construction of nuclear power plants in California.

"The cost of water is likely to increase substantially to the Yorba Linda County Water District and its consumers if this initiative measure passes," the board's resolution stated.

Passage of Prop. 15 the resolution further stated, would mean that the added power requirements that are certain to develop in the future would have to come from conventional power sources, meaning greater air pollution and further strains on an "already critical petroleum situation."

Board president Fred Clodt was even more specific. "There is a continuing need for self-sufficiency of power that is required to produce and deliver water," he said. "It takes electrical energy to deliver water to the district's underground basin and then pump it into our system.

"New power sources will be needed during the next 10 years just to keep even with the state's power needs. It appears that nuclear energy is currently the most desirable. It is clean, safe and economical".

Alternate power sources, such as solar power, "are still too far in the future to place any reliance on".

He said the board is pledged to make all legitimate efforts possible to convince the district's customers that Prop. 15 can only cost them more money.

"Until the lights go out and the gas stations close, some people won't be convinced that nuclear energy is vitally needed," he said.

Death Takes Bruce Nelson

A Yorba Linda man was found dead by his wife early Friday morning last week, the apparent victim of a heart attack.

Wanda Jean Nelson, 5731 Placerville, told police her husband, Bruce Edward Nelson, 38, had just returned from a business trip, complaining of nausea and a sore throat. She had been up with him until 2 a.m., she said, at which time she dozed off.

Awakening about 6:30 a.m., Mrs. Nelson found her husband unconscious on the floor. When she could not rouse him, she called the Yorba Linda Fire Department, who tried in vain to revive the victim.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Canyon General Hospital.

Three years a resident of Yorba Linda, Nelson leaves two children, a son, Garth, 14; and a daughter, Laurie, 11.

Other survivors include the victim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Nelson, Fullerton; two brothers, Vernon, of Los Angeles; and Garth, of Fullerton; and a sister Mrs. Lynne Enright, also of Yorba Linda.

Nelson was employed as a procurement manager at Hughes Aircraft, Fullerton.

Funeral arrangements were by McAulay and Wallace, Fullerton.

Library Friends

Carol Hugins, active Yorba Lindan will serve as the new president of the Friends of the Yorba Linda Library.

Installed with Mrs. Hugins at the May 24 meeting were Pat Baur, vice president; Carol Vallianos, secretary and Ed Niles, treasurer.

A representative of the library spoke at the meeting on the new Friends of the Museum group.

The Friends of the Library wish to thank all in the community who supported the May 8 Book Sale. Proceeds from the sale will benefit the community through its library.

Here we are approaching another Election Day and, as usual, the voters are confused. I know this from the number of folks who have asked for clarification on Proposition 15 and my recommendations on various candidates.

It seems that there is always one proposition that is controversial and so worded that it is difficult to know whether a vote means "YES" or "NO". Prop 15 takes the honors this time around.

Careful reading of the measure will clarify it for voters. It you are against more nuclear power plants being operated or constructed then you should vote "YES". If you believe we need these plants to furnish more energy then you should vote "NO".

I think its much easier to look at it that way than it is to go by the usual tactics of opponents and proponents who urge that a "NO" vote is a "YES" vote and vice versa.

The one candidate on both ballots who came in and talked to me was Paul Bell who is after the Democratic nomination for the 35th State Senate seat. His opponent is Sal Zavala. The Demo winner will face the survivor of a crowded Republican slate for the nomination.

Bell is optimistic about winning. He realizes that Zavala has strong name identification in the area but feels that his opponent has not been vocal enough.

Both ballots have some interesting contests and the results are likely to have considerable bearing on the Republican and Democratic national conventions later on in the summer.

President Ford and Ronald Regan are after their party's support and the field for the Democrats is crowded with delegate slates for the candidates.

Jimmy Carter could possibly kill off his pursuers with a big victory here. If Governor Brown is at all serious about the nomination this year (which I don't believe he is) a defeat in his own state could be devastating.

Morris Udall and Frank Church have got to do well next Tuesday. They have to beat Brown and be close to Carter or be ready to call it quits for 1976.

Getting back to that opinion about Brown. It is my belief that he is testing the party reaction to him as he looks ahead to 1980. He wants some say and attention at the convention but he needs the remainder of his time as governor to further build himself up as the choice in 1980. Through the impact he has made this time he will have the entire nation watching him the next four years.

A saleable record of accomplishments as Governor with reelection in 1978 will put him in the driver's seat for the party nomination four years from now.

Both parties have exciting contests for the U.S.Senate nomination. The GOP has some high powered names on the ballot and the Democrats are featuring the Tunney-Hayden battle.

Bell, Finch, Harmer and Hayakawa are the better known GOP names but the 10 candidates should pretty well split up the vote with the eventual winner's margin being slight.

The opportunity to seize the 35th District State Senate seat being vacated by James Whetmore will have the most local interest.

There is enough on the ballots to pique each registered voter to go to the polls on June 8 and assist in making the decisions on candidates and propositions.

Unfortunately, all too many voters will not agree with that assumption and the turnout will probably be light. If more than 50% of the voters cast ballots it would be a tremendous surprise.

If anything will get you to the polls, it might be well to let you know that you can get two hours off from work in order to vote. As lengthy as the ballot is it is not going to take more than a few minutes to mark it. Then you can have the rest of the alloted time off for yourself.

Next morning, the truck was still there. The radio and the tapes weren't.

Tuesday May 11

An $18,000 earth-mover owned by a Santa Ana firm was stolen last week from a contruction site near the corner of Highland and Buena Vista in Yorba Linda.

According to police, a Brea patrolman, driving past the site about 1 p.m. Tuesday, noticed a man with a flat-bed Peter-Bilt truck loading earth-moving equipment.

Since nothing appeared out of the ordinary, however, the officer reportedly did not investigate.

$200 worth of property was stolen last Thursday night or Friday morning from the camper of Timothy Lee Laughlin, 4576 Casa Oro, Yorba Linda, while it was parked near his home. Items lost included a stereo unit and tools.

Thursday, May 27

Thursday night last week, Franklin Davenport, 37, of 18071 Bastanchury Rd., Yorba Linda, decided to try an experiment.

The night before, shortly after 9, he had had to leave his home for about 15 minutes. When he got back, over $1000 worth of property was gone, including $205 cash. His return had apparently frightened the burglar away.

So he decided to try it again. Only this time he'd be there.

Again, shortly after 9, someone came to his front door, ringing the bell and knocking. Davenport waited. After a while the noise stopped. A voice said--loudly--"Nobody's home. Let's go." Davenport waited.

Then he heard someone in a downstairs bedroom, ransacking the dresser. After a while, the intruders went into his office, closed the door, and turned on a light. Davenport decided to act.

He threw the door open. "Freeze!" he ordered. The burglars froze. Davenport called the cops.

Two 14-year-old Yorba Linda boys were booked on charges of burglary.

The same day, less hapless thieves got $370 worth of belongings, including stereo speakers and a tape recorder, from the home of Arlene B. Carro, 4911 Eureka, Yorba Linda.

Wednesday, May 26

On Wednesday, burglars took a $45 coin collection from the home of Suzie Ware McGinty, 5575 Mountainview, Yorba Linda.

Tuesday, May 25

Tuesday, Elmus E. Boyer, 17761 Christie, lost a $350 CB radio from the cab of his camper, left parked in his drive.

KATIE'S COLUMN or DOWN ON THE FARM

by Kay Starr

My son, the married one, is a good husband. He finally bought his wife a washer and dryer (and it wasn't even a special occasion). Anyway, he was telling me all about the two pieces of machinery, the color, what they will do (wash and dry clothes, too), and finally came to the big deal.

He paid a whole bunch extra and they "gave" him a very fine guarantee that would cover parts and labor should the need arise.

The home ec in me rose up and roared, "What do you mean they gave you? You paid for the darn thing, and probably way too much". It just points out how we buy something with our hard earned money but consider it in terms of being given the item, or service.

On the same day, listening to the radio, I heard David Horowitz on KFI state that he found a booklet printed by the government that was free in one department but cost money in another department.

His comment was, "Why should we pay for something we could get for free?" Which I would rephrase to, "Why should we pay twice for something that we have already paid for?"

In other words, our taxes pay for printing government booklets, so there's no need to pay again. I understanding that some of the booklets require postage to be paid, but since our money is subsidizing the postal service, I'm not too sure about that either.

There's been many a time when I have gone over to my farm in a terrible mood, mad at something or someone, or worse yet at myself, and the atmosphere of the trees and working amongst them have calmed me. After a few hours I get onto a better track.

However, it never occurred to me that others might reap the same benefit from walking amongst the trees until yesterday. As I was pruning trees for another grower, two young people, obviously at odds with each other, started walking into the field of trees.

I followed their progress for a bit as they bickered back and forth, and then I went back to work. Maybe 30 minutes later, I happened to glance up and catch the two walking back out of the trees, holding hands.

Prop. B Effects School Districts

Proposed rearrangement of board of trustee areas within the North Orange County Community College District will be on the June 8 ballot as Proposition B.

Presentation of the proposal to voters is another step in a chain of legal procedures required after the addition of about five square miles along the district's southwest boundary.

The California Community Colleges Board of Governors placed the approximately five-square-mile area within the community college district last September.

The proposed rearrangement received the unanimous approval of the Orange County Committee on School District Organization. No objections to the proposal have been reported to the community college district.

Results of the election will not have an effect on monetary matters or on the annexation. The rearrangement simplified the description of boundaries and attempts to group more closely areas of common interests.

The territory annexed to the district is generally south of Katella Ave., north of Chapman Ave., west of Euclid Ave. and east of the Los Alamitos Reserve Training Center.

It also can be described as a portion of the area within the Garden Grove Unified School District. The annexation is in no way a deannexation of territory from the unified district, which provides kindergarten through 12th grade instruction to seven cities.

The annexation action by the state community colleges board was taken to fulfill a law requiring all of the state to be within a community college district by 1975. Portions of the territory within the Garden Grove Unified School District also were annexed to the Coast and Rancho Santiago Community College Districts.

Action by the state agency came after residents of the Garden Grove district made several unsuccessful attempts to get voter consensus for the formation of a local community college district or for annexation to adjacent districts.

Under the rearrangement proposal, trustee areas are described by the elementary and unified school districts they would encompass: Trustee Area 1, the Anaheim City and Magnolia School Districts, as well as the newly annexed area on the east of Beach Blvd.; Trustee Area 2, the Cypress, Los Alamitos and Savanna School Districts, as well as the newly annexed area on the west of Beach Blvd.; Trustee Area 3, the Brea-Olinda and Placentia Unified School Districts, as well as the La Habra City, Lowell Joint and Yorba Linda School Districts; and Trustee Area 4, the Buena Park, Centralia and Fullerton School Districts.

HIT OR MISS?—It's difficult to tell from the position of the ball and bat but what really counts is that Sherry Broshinsky and her Esperanza High team mates won their CIF softball playoff game 6-5 over La Habra High. However, the Aztec girls lost the next game to be eliminated.
